

pete sharma

training language teachers for the internet age

Integrating the Internet into Business English teaching

One-day workshop

Session one: background

Aims:

- 1 To present a rationale for using the Internet in Business English
- 1 To ensure participants are familiar with necessary terminology

Overview:

- 1 What is on the Internet?
- 1 Why use the Internet in Business English teaching?
- 1 How can this resource be exploited?
- 1 Essential technical terminology
- 1 Constraints

Session two: methodology

Aim:

- 1 To describe how language teaching practice has changed due to the impact of the Internet / world wide web on methodology

Overview:

- 1 Focus on a range of areas:
- 1 Grammar / Language skills / Lexis / Business Skills / Cultural awareness training / Phonology / ESP

Session three: practical teaching ideas (1)

Aims:

- 1 To present a range of practical teaching ideas from "The Internet and Business English" Barrett / Sharma (Summertown: 2003)
- 1 To offer some useful sites for specialist areas

Overview:

- 1 Practical ideas in the areas of: Learning to Learn / Business English Teaching / ESP

Session four: practical teaching ideas (2): workshop

Aims:

- 1 To allow participants to share their own experiences, ideas and suggestions for useful web-sites
- 1 To allow questions on any aspects arising from the workshop day

Overview:

- 1 Ideas exchange
- 1 Issues: copyright
- 1 Establishing good practice
- 1 Open forum

Who is this session for?

This workshop day is for Business English teachers and teacher trainers.